RECEIVERSHIP SALE

ECO-INDUSTRIAL BUSINESS PARK INC.

OVERVIEW INFORMATION

Bid Deadline: 12:00 pm August 22, 2024

Receivership Sale:
Edmonton, Alberta
Water Disposal

Eco-Industrial Business Park Inc.

On November 4, 2021, MNP Ltd. was appointed as the receiver (“MNP” or the “Receiver”) of Eco-Industrial Business Park Inc. (“Eco-Industrial” or the “Company”) pursuant to an Order of the Court of Queen’s Bench of Alberta (as at then was). The Receiver has engaged Sayer Energy Advisors to assist it with a joint venture or sale of Eco-Industrial’s disposal wells and facility located in the Edmonton area of Alberta (the “Property”).

The Property consists of two Class 1A disposal wells and an injection facility located within the Eco-Industrial Business Park in northeast Edmonton, Alberta.

The Property is strategically located within the city of Edmonton, having ideal access to major transportation infrastructure including Anthony Henday Drive and the Yellowhead Highway. The facility is licensed to accept most oilfield exploration and production waste streams as well as several industrial wastewater streams to serve local area businesses.

With adequate provisions for solids processing, cash flow models based on various sensitivities suggest that annual net revenue could range from $1.8 million at 300 m³/d of fluids disposal to over $8.0 million per year at 600 m³/d depending on the volume and quality of the waste received.

As of June 1, 2024, the Property had a deemed net asset value of ($354,432) (deemed assets of $0 and deemed liabilities of $354,432), with an LMR ratio of 0.00.

Eco-Industrial holds a 100% working interest in two Class 1A disposal wells, WBPInc. Edmonton Disp 100/10-17-053-23W4/0 and WBPInc. Edmonton 100/11-17-053-23W4/0 and an injection facility at 11-17-053-23W4. The wells were originally used to dispose wastewater fluid from a methanol production facility.

After the closure of the methanol facility, in 2014 the new owners of Eco-Industrial obtained approval for a commercial Oilfield Waste Management Facility which included the 11-17-053-23W4 Class 1A disposal well, two 750-barrel tanks and truck unloading facilities.

11-17 Plant Site

10-17 Well

The 10-17-53-23W4 Class 1A well continued injecting as a service well, primarily receiving fluid from nearby groundwater monitoring wells. Both disposal wells inject into the Nisku Formation of which the Company holds the mineral rights.

The 11-17 well was drilled vertically in 1970 but unlike the 10-17 well drilled in 1965 it was completed open hole. Prior to 1990 the well regularly injected daily volumes over 3,000 m³ before being shut in for facility operational reasons.

With adequate provisions for solids processing, cash flow models based on various sensitivities suggest that annual net revenue could range from $1.8 million at 300 m³/d of fluids disposal to over $8.0 million per year at 600 m³/d depending on the volume and quality of the waste received.

The facility at 11-17-053-23W4 is currently equipped with two 750-barrel tanks, containment, and gravity feeds to the well. Recent injectivity testing has shown that the well can accept economic volumes of clean fluid on a vacuum and over 800 m³/d if pumped at the maximum allowable wellhead injectivity pressure (MWHIP) of 4,160 kPa.

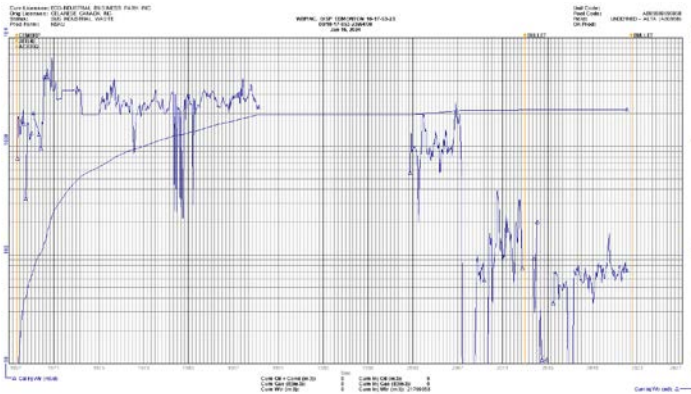

The Devonian aged Nisku Formation in the Edmonton area is ideal for commercial disposal activity. The reservoir is a large aquifer that sits on the edge of a carbonate shelf which consists predominately of dolomite. The aquifer covers a large areal extent and ranges in thickness from 40 to 80 metres. It is overlain by a shale cap rock of the Calmar Formation which contains injection fluids.

Both the 10-17 and 11-17 wells have demonstrated the high injectivity of the Nisku Formation. The gaps in injection history shown on the following injection plots are a result of business interruptions rather than a loss of injectivity.

Project Development

Recently the facility license was amended to accommodate future expansion to provide additional on-site storage and pumping capacity along with filtration equipment. It is anticipated that this additional storage, with an effective engineered design, will enable the facility to handle more solids with longer fluid retention time and allow for increased settling, coupled with filtration. The proposed modifications will allow the facility operator to enhance the revenue stream by handling higher value waste streams (solids).

Under care of the Receiver, the two disposal wells and the facility are in compliance with the current regulations along with Directives 051 and 058, and the associated Site-Specific Liability Assessment has recently been updated. The Alberta Energy Regulator (“AER”) has accepted an operations plan such that operations may resume, and has granted approval to construct and operate an oilfield waste management facility as described in Amendment C to Approval WM154, granted on November 29, 2023.

Injection Facility

In November 2023, the AER approved the Company’s application to amend the waste management facility to increase the maximum storage capacity from 240 m³ to 876 m³. The application was made after a strategic operating plan and detailed FEED study facilities engineering review was performed to provide a design that will improve the overall performance and operability of the facility.

5. Disclosure

- 5.1 In the event you or any of the Recipient's Representatives become legally compelled (by deposition, interrogatory, request for documents, subpoena, civil investigation, demand, order, or other legal process) to disclose any of the contents of the Confidential Information, or either the fact that discussions or negotiations are taking place concerning a possible Transaction between the Discloser and you, or any of the terms, conditions, or other facts with respect to any such possible Transaction, including the status thereof, the Discloser agrees that you and the Recipient's Representatives may do so without liability provided you (i) cooperate with the Discloser in any attempts it may make to obtain a protective order or other appropriate assurance that confidential treatment will be afforded the Confidential Information, and (ii) if no protective order is obtained and disclosure is required, (a) furnish only that portion of the Confidential Information that, in your counsel's opinion, you are legally compelled to disclose, and (b) take all reasonable measures to obtain reliable assurance that confidential treatment will be accorded the Confidential Information.

- 6.4 Notwithstanding Section 6.3 or anything to the contrary in this Agreement, the Recipient and its Representatives are not required to destroy any computer files containing the Confidential Information that are created during automatic computer system backup provided that such files are stored securely by the Recipient and its Representatives, cannot be destroyed without undue efforts, and access to such files are limited. With respect to such backup computer files, the non-use and confidentiality obligations set forth in this Agreement shall apply in perpetuity and survive expiration or termination of this Agreement.
- 6.5 If the Recipient or any of the Recipient's Representatives are provided with physical access to any properties or facilities of the Company, the Recipient agrees that neither the Recipient nor any of the Recipient's Representatives shall have, and shall not make, any claims whatsoever against the Discloser, or any of its Representatives as a result of such access including, without limitation, any and all claims and causes of action for personal injury, death, or property damage occurring as a result of the Recipient or any of the Recipient's Representatives' access to such properties or facilities and the Recipient agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the Discloser, or any of its Representatives from and against any and all liabilities, claims, and causes of action for personal injury, death, or property damage occurring on or to such property or facility as a result of entry onto the premises by the Recipient or any of the Recipient's Representatives. You shall, and shall cause your Representatives to, comply fully with all rules, regulations, and instructions issued by the Discloser regarding you or the Recipient's Representatives' access to such properties or facilities.
- 6.6 The Recipient understands and acknowledges that neither the Discloser nor any of its Representatives makes any representation or warranty, express or implied, as to the accuracy or completeness of the Confidential Information. The Recipient agrees that neither the Discloser nor any of its Representatives shall have any liability to the Recipient or any of the Recipient's Representatives relating to or resulting from use of the Confidential Information by the Recipient or the Recipient's Representatives. The Recipient further understands and agrees that (i) the Discloser (a) shall be free to conduct the process for a Transaction as it in its sole discretion shall determine (including changing or terminating such process, providing any information to any other Person, negotiating with any other Person or entering into a Definitive Agreement with any other Person with respect to any transaction, in each case, at any time and without notice to you or any other Person) and (b) shall be free at its sole discretion to at any time accept or reject any proposal relating to the Opportunity for any reason without notice to you or any other Person, and (ii) the Recipient shall have no claim against the Discloser or any of its Representatives in connection with any of the foregoing.
- 6.7 The Recipient hereby represents and warrants that:
- (a) it is not bound by the terms of any agreement with a third party that would conflict with any of the Recipient's obligations under this Agreement and:
 - (b) in accepting and reviewing the Confidential Information, the Recipient represents and warrants that it is acting solely for itself. Further, the Recipient represents and warrants that neither the Recipient nor any of the Recipient's Representatives have discussed or shared, and the Recipient hereby covenants that unless it has first received the written consent of the Discloser neither the Recipient nor any of the Recipient's Representatives will discuss or share, with any third party any aspect of the Confidential Information, except in accordance with Section 2.3 or 5.1 of this Agreement;

- (c) the Recipient acknowledges that the effect of this covenant is that without the full disclosure to and the written consent of the Discloser, neither the Recipient nor any of the Recipient's Representatives can act as agent, partner, co-participant or co-venturer for any third party or third parties with respect to a proposed Transaction; and
- (d) in order to obtain the consent of the Discloser, which the Discloser is entitled to withhold in its sole discretion, the Recipient shall notify the Discloser of the identity of each Person for whom or with whom the Recipient or any of the Recipient's Representatives had considered pursuing a possible Transaction and the nature and interest the Recipient or any of the Recipient's Representatives and each such Person would have in respect of such possible Transaction.

- 6.8 The Recipient agrees that, unless and until a Definitive Agreement is entered into between the Discloser and the Recipient with respect to the Transaction, neither the Discloser nor the Recipient will be under any legal obligation of any kind whatsoever with respect to the Transaction by virtue of this or any other written or oral expression, except with respect to the matters specifically agreed to herein. Except for the matters set forth in this Agreement or in any Definitive Agreement, neither party shall be entitled to rely on any statement, promise, agreement or understanding, whether oral or written, any custom, usage of trade, course of dealing or conduct.
- 6.9 The Recipient agrees that all (i) communications regarding the Transaction, (ii) requests for additional information, (iii) requests for facility tours or management meetings, and (iv) discussions or questions regarding procedures will be submitted or directed only to the Discloser. Without the Discloser's prior written consent, the Recipient shall not, and shall direct the Recipient's Representatives not to, make any contact of any nature regarding a proposed Transaction (including inquiries or requests concerning Confidential Information) with any employee, supplier, customer, creditor, bank, or other lender of or to the Company.
